DETAILED ACTION

1. The Affidavit of Shane Hopkins under 37 CFR 1.131 filed on 12/13/2004 under 37 CFR 1.131 has been considered but is ineffective to overcome the Wizig (US 6,735,569) reference.
2. The evidence submitted is insufficient to establish a conception of the invention prior to the effective date of the Wizig reference. While conception is the mental part of the inventive act, it must be capable of proof, such as by demonstrative evidence or by a complete disclosure to another. Conception is more than a vague idea of how to solve a problem. The requisite means themselves and their interaction must also be comprehended. See Mergenthaler v. Scudder, 1897 C.D. 724, 81 O.G. 1417 (D.C. Cir. 1897).

After through consideration of Exhibits A, B, and C, the examiner did not find sufficient evidence in any of the exhibits to suggest that the teachings of the claims in the current application were taught before the filing date of the Wizig reference.

For example, none of the exhibits disclosed any limitations to teach "at least one benefits vendor computer system communicating with said at least one benefits coordinator computer system such that benefits information is provided from said at least one benefits vendor computer system to said at least one benefits recipient system via said portal web site, said at least one benefits coordinator computer system being a system which is separate from said at least one benefits vendor computer system", or "at least one benefits coordinator computer system selecting vendor information from at said least one vendor computer system for delivery to said at least one benefits recipient system based, at least in part upon information stored on said at least one benefits coordinator computer system" as claimed in claim 12 of the current application.

The examiner needs clearer evidence in the exhibits that all the limitations in the current pending claims were taught or suggested for the examiner to be convinced that the invention was conceived by the applicants prior to November 4, 1999, the filing date of the Wizig reference.

Based on the above reasons, the previous rejections to Claims 3, 4, and 12-35 are maintained.

Conclusion

3. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
